“The Scarlet Ibis”
Journal Questions

Make sure that “The Scarlet Ibis Journal Questions” has been added to your journal’s Table of Contents page underneath “Theme Writing #1”. For each number below, copy down and underline the underlined portion of each question. Always answer in complete sentences, or the response will not be awarded with any points.

The Facts
Answer in 1-2 complete sentences for credit.

1. Why does the narrator teach Doodle to walk? Why does the narrator cry when his family congratulates him for his efforts?

2. After Doodle has learned to walk, what does his brother teach him to prepare him for school?

3. How does Doodle respond to the scarlet ibis’s appearance and death?

Literature Terms
Write the term and underline it. Then copy down, and highlight an example from “The Scarlet Ibis” for each of the following terms:

4. simile
5. metaphor
6. personification
7. allusion
8. alliteration

Your Words
Give your informed opinion. Answer in at least 3 complete sentences.

9. By the end of the story, who do you pity more: the narrator or Doodle? (Start your response with “I pity _______ more because…”)

10. Is the narrator responsible the story’s final outcome? Why or why not?

11. Re-read your answer to the second question from Theme Writing #1. How does your Theme Writing response relate to “The Scarlet Ibis” as a whole? Be creative and draw an interesting thematic comparison.

Creative Writing

12. This would be a very different story if it were told from Doodle’s perspective. Pick a significant scene from “The Scarlet Ibis” and retell it from Doodle’s point of view (first person) including his senses and mindset. Do not simply recopy a passage changing “Doodle” to “I”; consider Doodle’s perspective and include his thoughts and feelings in the narrative. Write two full paragraphs.