Consider:

Meanwhile, the United States Army, thirsting for revenge, was prowling the country north and west of the Black Hills, killing Indians wherever they could be found.

— Dee Brown, Bury my Heart at Wounded Knee

Discuss:

1. What are the connotations of thirsting? What feelings are evoked by this diction?
2. What are the connotations of prowling? What kind of animals prowl? What attitude toward the U.S. army does this diction convey?

Apply:

3. Use an eating or drinking verb in a sentence which expresses anger about a parking ticket. Do not use the verb to literally express eating or drinking. Instead, express your anger through the verb. Use Brown's sentence as a model. Share your sentence with a partner.

Diction ⑧

PERIOD:    #

Consider:

Most men wear their belts low here, there being so many outstanding bellies, some big enough to have names of their own and be formally introduced. Those men don't suck them in or hide them in loose shirts; they let them hang free, they pat them, they stroke them as they stand around and talk.

— Garrison Keillor, "Home," Lake Wobegon Days

Discuss:

1. What is the usual meaning of outstanding? What is its meaning here? What does this pun reveal about the attitude of the author toward his subject?
2. Read the second sentence again. How would the level of formality change if we changed suck to pull and let them hang free to accept them?

Apply:

3. Write a sentence or two describing an unattractive but beloved relative. In your description, use words that describe the unattractive features honestly yet reveal that you care about this person, that you accept and even admire him/her, complete with defects. Use Keillor's description as a model. Throw in a pun if you can think of one. Share your description with the class.
