

Watchmen Response Journal

- Be sure to complete your journal responses as you read the text. Incorporate journaling into your reading process; all the cool kids are doin' it.
- Here's the due date schedule for responses to be submitted to Turnitin.com:
 - Nov. 12th: 4 responses are due from chapters I-III
 - Nov. 21st: 4 responses are due from chapters IV-VII
 - Dec. 1st: 4 responses are due from chapters VIII-IX
 - Dec. 8th: 4 responses are due from chapters X-XII
- Citation format is: (chapter.page.panel). So chapter II, page 3, panel 4 would be (II.3.4). And chapter IX, page 12, panels 1-8 would be (IX.12.1-8).
- Because of the visual format of Watchmen, you may choose to respond to either a specific quote, a single panel, or a series of panels. If you use a quote, type it out. If you select a panel or a series of panels, briefly summarize the contents; the summary should be brief (1-2 sentences) but accurate.
- In the critical portion of each response, strive to genuinely analyze (A-TEAM) a specific portion of the text in a focused way with mechanical precision. Refer to the notes to help you in analyzing stylistic motifs and thematic elements.
- In the personal portion of each response, be genuine with your thoughts and expressive in your style as you connect with the text. Refer to your textbook (specifically pg. 10-11) for help with effective interactions with literature.
- Select one response from each due date as your favorite from that set, and submit it in bold-face type. You may be asked to bring in a hardcopy of some of your best journal entries for class discussion.
- Be sure that each of your responses includes all of the following:
 - the quote or a short summary of the panel(s) you've chosen
 - properly-formatted citation (see above, beneath the due dates)
 - your critical analysis
 - your personal response
