

ENGLISH 1 FALL EXAM STUDY GUIDE

You must bring a pencil, a pen, and notebook paper to the exam. You may use handwritten notes (turned in with the exam) and your copies Of Mice and Men and Animal Farm.

USAGE NOTES

your/you're to/too/two there/their/they're who's/whose than/then it's/its accept/except/expect
already/all ready

SAT VOCAB #1

annals
landlocked
disperse
demoralize
intact
inconspicuous negotiate
replenish
epic
extremity

SAT VOCAB #2

amity
chivalry
devout hereditary medieval potion
prowess
quest
sovereign
venerable

OF MICE AND MEN

what upset George about his bunk why the boss upset at George and Lennie George and Lennie's last names why the boss is suspicious of George who is in charge of George and Lennie's work team the old swamper's name the setting for Chapter 3 who George opens up to about his past with Lennie what Crooks wants most in life Curley's wife's dream what's unique about Candy coming into Crook's room meaning behind Crook's name what Candy has been doing in Ch. 4 setting for Chapter 4 main reason Crooks reacts so badly to Lennie how Curley's wife's dreams were changed or lost how Lennie's puppy and Curley's wife die why Lennie gets mad in Chapter 5 why Curley's wife gets mad at in Chapter 5 who first finds Curley's wife's body is why the men think that Lennie is armed with a gun the direction Lennie goes at the end of Chapter 5 the direction George says that Lennie goes the possibilities for Lennie that George and Slim talk about how George is dressed differently at the end of Ch. 5 who lies to protect George in Chapter 5 who George lies to in order to protect Lennie in Chapter 5 the setting of Chapter 5

ANIMAL FARM

the name of the farm at the start of the novel the name of the farmer who owns the farm at the start animal on the farm who never laughed the character in the book that is an allegory for Karl Marx the pig who was such a persuasive and brilliant talker the system of thought based on Old Major's teachings the name of heaven for obedient animals according to Moses what prompted the actual rebellion what the animals did with the hams they found in the kitchen the group of animals that first learns how to read animal who works the hardest on the farm the hardest worker's personal motto which animal is unchanged by the Rebellion animal who does not support the Rebellion according to Snowball, the distinguishing mark of a man animal who had the dream that started the Rebellion two animals who are always arguing animal who said there was nothing worth reading what's been going on with the animals on the other farms animal who was in charge of defending the farm why Boxer is upset after defeating the humans in battle Snowball's reaction to Boxer's being distressed two animals who earned "Animal Hero, First Class" award name of the battle when the humans tried to return what happens to Mollie hardest worker's new motto Squealer's answer to the confusion about the windmill reason Napoleon gives for the need to trade with humans one sign that humans were starting to respect Animal Farm who was blamed for the destruction of the windmill why the hens rebelled after the executions this becomes forbidden how the pigs justify that sleeping in a bed is okay slogan, repetition, appeal to the fears of an audience what is added to Comrade Napoleon's name in Ch. 8 who Napoleon sold the lumber to how the windmill was destroyed in Ch. 8 new discovery that the pigs make in Ch. 8 the new ration given to the pigs in Ch. 9 whether Boxer was ever allowed to retire whether the animals ever get heated stalls as promised why the humans are on the farm in the last chapter? at the end, what the lower animals realize about the pigs the original Seven Commandments and how they change the first animal to discover where Boxer was being taken what Napoleon carries in his trotter at the end of the novel what causes the humans and the pigs to argue at the end