

Comp. Book Task #3

Update the first page of your composition book, its Table of Contents, with the first three Comp. Book Tasks. On the next free page, please respond to each of the following prompts. Please limit each response to its own single page, without writing on the back. Include specific, cited textual details in your responses.

- 3a. Analyze the last chapter of the novel. First paraphrase the literal details; then colormark (in your copy of the novel) the language and consider the progression(s), tone, irony. How has Achebe concluded his themes? Do you think Achebe creates an effective ending?
- 3b. Achebe's novel is structured in three sections. Why? How do these parts function and/or relate to one another? In addition to these breaks, Achebe also structures the novel around motifs and other content shifts. Locate evidence to support this claim and argue for this intentional effect.
