

PARTNER #1: _____

PARTNER #2: _____

Many people spend long hours trying to achieve perfection in their personal or professional lives. Similarly, people often demand perfection from others, creating expectations that may be challenging to live up to. In contrast, some people think perfection is not attainable or desirable. Discuss with a partner your position on the value of striving for perfection, and come up with six pieces of evidence that you feel would most effectively defend your position. (Cite sources when/if possible.)

Facts: objective information
Anecdotes: short, real-life stories used to illustrate a point
Analogies: comparisons between two things used to explain or clarify a point
Statistics: numerical facts or data
Examples: specific instances that demonstrate something relevant to the claim
Details: relevant facts, descriptions, items, or features
Illustrations: examples meant to clarify or prove something
Expert Opinions: statements made by people with special knowledge of the topic
Personal Observations and Personal Experiences: writer's conclusions based on their experiences
Testimonies: formal written or spoken statements provided as evidence
Experiments: scientific procedures that test hypotheses and rely on observable, measurable, and reproducible results
