

Frankenstein Journal "3a"

- Look to the left of your name for your assigned chunk of the novel. Closely read that chapter, paying special attention to the NOTABLE FEATURES from the notes as well as your assigned THEMATIC MOTIF.
- Review and amend your existing R.C.P. ANNOTATIONS.
- In ink, on a fresh page of your comp book, analyze Shelley's choices and how they serve to develop your motif in the novel. Include three relevant, woven, cited quotations as evidence supporting your personal interpretation.
- On the page opposite your analysis, illustrate your thinking visually.
- Add - to the glossary in the back of your journal - five words with which you're unfamiliar.
