

CO-OP OPEN-BOOK RCP POP QUIZ

Complete some of the following sentence frames with a single-sentence bit of analysis.

On a single looseleaf sheet of notebook paper, work your assigned partner with each of you using your Reading Comprehension Protocol prep work (your annotations and highlighting in your own book, your theme log, and your personal vocab list in your journal); each of your sentences should feature a relevant, properly woven, parenthetically cited quotation from the assigned reading:

- 1) [Character's name]'s perspective is unique because of their [pick one!] (citation).
 - belief in _____
 - need for _____
 - motivation to _____
 - goal of _____
 - valuing of _____
- 2) One key conflict in this chunk of the reading is _____ (citation).
- 3) In this assigned reading, it's ironic that _____ because _____ would expect _____, while in reality _____ (citation).
- 4) I highlighted some [which type?] imagery, which [author's name] uses to _____; this helps me understand _____ (citation).
- 5) While I was reading, I drew a question mark in the margin next to [author's name]'s literal description of _____, because _____ (citation).
- 6) I drew a question mark in the margin next to [author's last name]'s allusion to _____, since I needed more context to understand its meaning (citation).
- 7) I circled the word _____, which seems connected to _____ in the text; it probably means _____ based on the context (citation).
- 8) A passage that develops [summary of your assigned motif] appears when [author's name] _____; this shows _____ (citation).
- 9) One stylistic choice I noticed is _____; [author's name] probably used this to _____ (citation).
- 10) [Author's last name] establishes a _____ tone in [specific section of the text], but it shifts to be _____ when _____ (citation).