Literary Analysis Essay — Rubric Reflection + Action Plan

Directions: Use your scored rubric + your highlighted hardcopy and look at my feedback marks (marginal codes). For each row below, write one complete sentence that explains what went well or what went south. Be specific — name the exact issue (missing quote context, miswoven quotation, weak evidence → theme link, MLA error, etc.).

Rubric row	Single-sentence reflection frame (write one sentence)
theme claim	I scored ___ for theme claim because ___.; I'm content with my score here because ___. / next time, I can score higher by ___.
authorial choices	I scored ___ for authorial choices because ___.; I'm content with my score here because ___. / next time, I can score higher by ___.
woven, cited quotations	I scored ___ for woven, cited quotations because ___.; I'm content with my score here because ___. / next time, I can score higher by ___.
commentary	I scored ___ for commentary because ___.; I'm content with my score here because ___. / next time, I can score higher by ___.
context & structure	I scored ___ for context & structure because ___.; I'm content with my score here because ___. / next time, I can score higher by ___.
format	I scored ___ for format because ___.; I'm content with my score here because ___. / next time, I can score higher by ___.
mechanics	I scored ___ for mechanics because ___.; I'm content with my score here because ___. / next time, I can score higher by ___.

BEST Writing Assessment — Action Plan

Read through the guide about the BEST Writing Assessment to help you reflect, then produce a three-sentence action plan below. Remember: on the state writing assessment (argument or exposition), you're still making an argument — your claim & your reasons   your evidence. There's no need to track an author's choices; instead, focus on clear reasons and organized support.

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

Upload your reflection & plan to Canvas by Monday at 11:59 p.m.

https://shorturl.at/Ip9ʃB